MR. HUGH CRAFT DEAD

Well Known Citizen Expires
From Heart Failure.

Had Lived in Paducah For Many Years—Was 65 Years Old.

Mr. Hugh M. Craft, one of Paducah's best known citizens, died this afternoon at 1 o'clock of heart failure at his home near Seventh and Jones streets. Mr. Craft had been in failing health for the past year or more, and several weeks ago slipped on ice and broke his arm, which disabled him for many weeks.

He improved sufficiently to get out a short time ago, and was down town this week. He was subject to attacks of vertigo, caused by heart disease, and died this afternoon during a sudden attack.

Mr. Craft was 65 years old, and was a native of Alabama. He had lived in Paducah for many years. He lost a leg while working on the river many years ago, and always walked with crutches.

Mr. Craft was a genial, well liked man. He was at one time keeper of the city hospital and later of the poor farm. He leaves a wife, one son, Mr. Will Craft, formerly a member of the fire department, and two sisters. No funeral arrangements have been made.

New York, May 14.—The Japanese closed Friday but not until late last night were the allotments arranged.

Patriotism and 7 per cent, it appears, worked together wonderfully, well says the syndicate which floated the loan.

MORE CHILLY WEATHER.

The sudden change in the weather yesterday misled many who thought the mercury dropped nearly to freezing point. The government thermometers in Observer Bornemann's office show the lowest yesterday 50, while the day before the lowest was 60. The highest day before, which was considered hot weather, was 83 and the highest yesterday was 70.
One week ago the thermometer registered as low as 38 degrees and Observer Borneman states that this kind of weather is nothing unusual and it comes every year only the people forget about it.

The largest audience since the meeting began was at Tenth-street church last night. A very impressive service was held. Three persons were baptized at the close. Services tonight at 7:45. Baptism may be administered tonight. Tomorrow's services are: Sunday school at 9:30, communion 10:45; preaching by Elder J.
J. Castiberry at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p.
m. Morning subject, "Glorifying in the Cross." Evening subject, "The New Life." Little Helpers meet at 2 p. m. Endeavor society at 6:30.

REDUCING FORCE IN LOCAL YARDS

Railroad Business is Falling Off Everywhere.

Assistant Night Yardmaster Here
Has Been Dispersed
With.

TWO CLERKS RELIEVED

The I. C. is beginning to cut down forces in the yard department here, the result of the conference held in Chicago last week when the new schedule to go into effect June 5th was outlined.

The conference was held by the higher officials and division superintendents and it was agreed that the decrease in business on the south end justified the cutting down of the forces at different points and this morning two train clerks in the yard office were dismissed and the work given to the telegraph operators.

William Fuller, assistant night yardmaster, was also dismissed and his work will be done by Night Yardmaster McDowell. Mr. McDowell formerly had but half the work to do. Two crews have been taken off here and there will be other things done for the purpose of economy.

their sanction to the proposed improvements. The Mayfield Water ments will be between $15,000 and

Same week last year, 682,930

Business at the banks has been almost as active this year as the same week of last year.

Wholesale trade is still backward on account of the weather but the volume of business is almost up to last

Retail trade is good. There may be a few houses in Paducah that are not doing the business they did last year but they are very few. Most of the retailers report from 15 to 40 per cent increase. This is but additional evidence of the prosperity of Paducah.

Local manufacturers, too, report all the business booked they care to book and trade in good condition.

Building is active and some substantial houses are being planned.
The tobacco market is picking up rapidly, and during the week there

Louisville Barbers Complain of Failure of Examiners to Do Their Duty.

OWENSBORO MAN FAILS

Lexington, Ky., May 14.—South Trimble won the Seventh District congressional nomination on the 289th ballot. Fayette county cast 28 votes for Cantrill by mistake, which gave him 53, enough to nominate him, but Cantrill stated that he would not have the nomination, as the votes were intended for Trimble. They were then given to Trimble and he was declared the nominee. He is considered one of the anti administration men.

AFTER BARBER EXAMINERS.

Louisville, Ky., May 14.—Local barbers have adopted a resolution calling the attention of Gov. Beckham to the alleged neglect of duty on the part of the Barbers' Examining Board in failing to require all barbers to pay the license imposed under the law.

The resolution instructs the Governor to call the members of the board before him with a view to ascertaining why some barbers are allowed to work and run shops without paying the yearly license fee of $5.

Mr. John Schmeltzer, president of the Examining Board, stated that to the best of his knowledge only one white shop in Louisville is running without a license. He said that a number of negro barbers refused to pay license, and are running in defiance of law. He said that the Board of Examiners had no available fund to prosecute the cases.

PADUCAH CROWD WELL TREATED

Nashville Officials Showed Them
Every Courtesy.

All Are Well Pleased With the Bitulithic Streets—May Have Them Here.

NASHVILLE MEN COMING SOON.

Paducah will build no more brick streets when the present contract is completed, if everything turns out as now expected. Mayor D. A. Yeiser, City Engineer L. A. Washington, the board of Public Works, and Councilman Hannan and Alderman Singleton returned last night from Nashville, where they were guests of city officials, and inspected Nashville's streets.

They were hospitably treated, being entertained by the mayor, the Board of Public Works, and everybody else with whom they came in contact.

As a result of their visit Manager Ingram, of the concern that makes the bitulithic streets, constructed in Nashville, and his engineer, will arrive in Paducah one day next week and look over the city with a view to giving the Board of Public Works a better idea of what it will cost the city to put in similar streets. They will examine the soil, etc., and it is believed the board will favorably consider the material, if the cost is not greater than brick streets. They will meet the board before returning to Nashville, and report the result of their investigations.

All the Paducah officials who examined the Nashville streets agree that they are pretty, smooth and noiseless, and apparently durable.
They do not cost as much in Nashville as brick streets cost in Paducah, and one of the things to be decided hereafter is whether they will cost Paducah more than brick streets now cost.

The only thing of which the Paducah officials are not certain is the durability of the streets made from this bitulithic compound. The material is made by patent formula, and has been invented only three or four years, which does not enable anyone to say for sure how long it will last.
Those streets built from it three years ago, however, are as good now as the day they were put down, and the men who build the streets guarantee them for five years, which is all brick streets are guaranteed for, although they are supposed to last ten years.

As to the stone that will be necessary in the manufacture of the material, the city has already received assurance that all needed may be purchased either from the Katterjohn company up at Princeton, where it is crushed in great quantities, or up the Tennessee river fifteen miles above Paducah.

The principal thing now is the cost. The members of the Board of Public Works seem favorably inclined to the Nashville material, and will decide after the visit of the Nashville experts, what to do.

getic and successful of the younger business men and has had marked success in his business, and the prospects for his new business are very good.

THIRD GAME GOES TO VISITORS

Paducah Lost Yesterday by Score of 9 to 4.

Only a Small Crowd of Fans Out—Indians Couldn't Banish Hits.

HOPKINSVILLE HERE TODAY

HOW THEY STAND.

	Won	Lost	Pct

Paducah	2	1	.667
Henderson	2	1	.667
Vincennes	1	1	.333
Clarksville	1	2	.333
Hopkinsville	0	2	.000

AT HENDERSON.

Henderson, 2-6-1; Vincennes, 1-3-5.

AT CAIRO.

Cairo-Hopkinsville game postponed on account of rain.

The Indians lost to the visitors at Wallace park yesterday afternoon before a small crowd by a score of 9 to 4. There were not fifty fans out to see the game, the weather being so inclement, and even Umpire Setley did not show up until long after 3:30 the time for calling the game. He thought the game would be declared off and telephoned he would not come. The managers of the teams decided to play and ordered him to report at the grounds. He showed up about 4 o'clock and started the game.

The game was not fast and the playing was not marked by any special features except the work of Jeffers, left fielder for the visitors, who did good work both in the field and with the stick.

Paducah had a chance when the game was young to pull out of the hole, but six hits bunched in the seventh inning netted the visitors five runs and put the game out of their reach.

There is one thing the ball players of the Kitty league will feel certain of and that is of their batting and netting average. Last season only one or two scores went in the official summary to the league secretary and as he had no complete records could not make out any averages. Fielders did not know their average and had no way to tell. This season, however, every game played so far has been sent in to the secretary and all scorers will continue to send the sheets in promptly or be fined. This season scorers are paid for their work and will be made to buckle down to the rules adopted and embodied in the constitution of the league.

The Hopkinsville team arrived last night from Cairo and this afternoon is playing the locals a game at Wallace park. Ferrell and Collins is the battery for the visitors and Hudson and Agan for the locals. Tomorrow and Monday games will be played and Freeman will pitch the Sunday game.

Vincennes and Clarksville are both claiming Pett and the matter will have to be settled by Secretary Farrell of the National association, it is thought, as no mutual agreement to submit the matter to President Thompson, of the K. I. T. league, has been reached.

The lineup of the visitors is as follows:

Welch, 2b; Mulleux, cf; Armstrong, 1b; Morris, 3b; Ramberger, ss; Warner, rf; Beville, lf; Collins, c; Ferrell, p. The extra pitchers are Bomas, Douffell and Alexander.

Pitcher Ferrell, of Little Rock, Ark., arrived last night and joined the Hoptown boys here.

The committee appointed by the carnival association has received the assurance of the board that the school children will be dismissed Tuesday afternoon for the remainder of the day on account of Tuesday being Children's Day at the carnival. The children will be taken to the grounds in a body by their teachers.

INSURANCE MEN IN OPEN REVOLT

They Ignore Commissioner's Demand to Answer Questions.

The Fire Underwriters Will Also Appeal to the Courts if Necessary.

RADICAL CHANGES PROPOSED

There is considerable interest manifested in insurance circles over the circulars sent out by Insurance Commissioner Henry Prewitt some time since demanding that certain searching questions asked in the circulars be answered before a notary by May 15, or the license of the agent refusing to answer will be revoked. The questions most objectionable, it seems, are those relating to rebating, and over these there promises to be a warm contest. If it is undertaken to revoke any licenses, the matter will doubtless find its way into the courts.

The claim of many agents, backed by good lawyers, is that the commissioner has overlooked his hand. Rebating is unlawful, and is punishable by a heavy fine. To ask a man such questions as are propounded by the commissioner is virtually asking him if he is guilty, and trying to make him answer. The constitution, claim the insurance men, protects every citizen from the necessity of incriminating himself. He cannot be made to answer a question which may incriminate him, and therefore, they argue, they cannot be compelled to answer questions regarding rebating.

The insurance men say Mr. Prewitt has no right to cancel the license of any agent except of the company if found to be insolvent, or unable to comply with the state laws. He has the power to have an agent prosecuted for violating the anti-rebate law, for which the penalty is a fine in any sum not exceeding $500, to be recovered by action in the name of the commonwealth, on collection paid into the state treasury. The law does not give the commissioner any authority to revoke a license for rebating, the insurance men claim.

It is understood that numerous agents of different companies throughout the state have refused to sign the questions. It is also stated that if the commissioner attempts to carry out his threat to revoke licenses he will be promptly enjoined.

It is said that this circular letter tends strongly in the interest of one of the large companies whose agents have been writing what is called "dummy" insurance up to the first of the present year, that is to say by practically giving away the full first year's premium, in order to show an abnormal amount of business on the books as having been written. It is said that one company by these methods wrote the enormous volume of $12,000,000 in Kentucky last year. In requiring answers under oath to the commissioner's questions it is thought that the agents of all companies will be afraid to offer any concessions for new insurance, in which event the large part of the business written last year by the company alluded to, might be saved on the books by the collection of the second annual premiums in full.

It is admitted by the insurance men that the practice of rebating is general. They say that it is impossible to stop it, in view of the fact that an agent's commission is his own, and that he may give up any part of it that he sees fit.

Several Paducah insurance men stated today that they have ignored the commissioner's letter, while others answered some of the questions. One agent stated that only one agent in the entire city filled out the blanks answering all the questions.

"The letter," stated one, "not only requires that certain questions be answered, but that they be sworn to before a notary. An official has no more right to make a man go before a notary and swear that he is not dishonest, than he has to make him swear that he is dishonest. There is no way to prevent rebating. It is probable that a meeting will be held in Paducah this summer seeking an agreement among all the agents in the districts not to rebate. It may be stopped that way."

Mr. Abram Weil has returned from Louisville, where he attended the Kentucky Association of Fire Insurance Agents. He was the only Paducah agent who attended. The fire insurance agents will probably unite with the life insurance agents to bring a test case to determine the legality of the insurance commissioner's rulings.

It was the ninth annual session and about 50 were in attendance. The agents are very much wrought up over a new ruling of the insurance commissioner, which is that not only every company must have a license, but that every agent must individually have one. This, if carried out, will cost some of the companies many thousands of dollars. It is understood that the commissioner is sustained by the attorney general. Some of the agents are in favor of letting the order be carried out, as it may get rid of "wild cat" men.

The agents have decided to embody in their contracts that the risks they write are their property, and not of the company for which they are written.

The association dropped the name "Local Underwriters' Association of Kentucky," and adopted that of "The Kentucky Association of Fire Insurance Agents." Thomas Dugan was elected president and H. V. Davis secretary.

IN FEDERAL COURT

WILL THE SUIT OF OWENS BROTHERS BE TAKEN.

The object in dismissing without prejudice in the circuit court yesterday the suit of Robert Owen and others against the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans railroad, which is the I. C., is to bring it again in federal court. The suit is for a large amount of damages and injunction on account of the company's running a transfer boat between Paducah and Brookport. The plaintiffs claim that it interferes with their ferry franchise, which is exclusive. The railroad claims that it operates under the federal laws, and that any effort to stop the transfer boat will be in restraint of interstate commerce. The question had been in the civil court for the past two or three years.

EXPOSURE.

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas, writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

BUGGY DEMOLISHED.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. J. T. Reddick's horse ran away and completely demolished his buggy. The horse had been left standing in front of the Riglesberger mill and frightened. It ran into Elizabeth street and turned the buggy over near the corner of Elizabeth and Third. The horse could not rise until the harness was loosened, but escaped injury.

SOUR STOMACH?

Blood Wine Cures It
Instantly.

"Blood Wine" will sweeten a sour stomach the moment it touches it. It will stop the rising of gases, froth, sour or greasy juices, will overcome a feeling of nausea or emptiness, or as if a rock were lodged in the stomach. It will tone up the stomach and digestive organs and arouse the liver and bowels to healthy action. I have seen a man who suffered with dyspepsia for years, who couldn't eat anything without pain, sit down to a meal of baked beans and pork after he had taken two bottles of "Blood Wine," eat heartily and get up from the table without the slightest suggestion of any discomfort. In his case the two bottles had entirely cured him. Tens of thousands of cases of obstinate indigestion have been entirely cured by Blood Wine in from one to six weeks.

Arthur J. Sanborn, 186 No. Main Street, Concord, N. H., says:

"I was first taken with indigestion, and this was followed with bloating. Doctors pronounced it nervous dyspepsia. I concluded to try Blood Wine, and I couldn't begin to tell you what a change there has been. Blood Wine has been of the greatest benefit to me."

Mrs. A. M. Bartlett, 46 Wellington St., Worcester, Mass., says:

"I have been troubled with nervous indigestion for several years. Have taken several bottles of Blood Wine with the very best result. Can willingly recommend it to all suffering from stomach trouble."

I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Du Bois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

SUMMER PLANS.

Paducah society is unusually dull for this season. There were no large social functions given the past week and save for the regular club meetings little entertaining is being done. Within the next few weeks those who expect to leave home for the summer will go. Several families have already moved to their country homes, and others will go very soon. The summer colony of Paducahans in Arcadia is fast increasing, and in a few years it is likely that few people of this city, will go to summer resorts but will enjoy instead the delights of the country surrounding Paducah.

DELIGHTFUL LECTURE.

One of the most delightful literary treats which Paducah people have enjoyed for some time will be the lecture of Dr. Burris A. Jenkins of Lexington, Monday evening, on "Paradise," at the First Christian church. The lecture will be under the auspices of the woman's committee of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Jenkins needs no introduction in Paducah, since from previous visits he has become very popular here, and is sure to have a large audience to hear him.

TO ATTEND FEDERATION.

Mrs. George Flournoy of this city, and her sister, Mrs. Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, will go to St. Louis, Monday, to attend the general federation of women's clubs, as delegates from Kentucky. There will be many social functions in connection with the federation meeting and there will be prominent women in attendance from all parts of the United States.

A number of Paducah society people enjoyed the excursion on the Dick Fowler Tuesday evening, given to the visitors attending the Southwestern Kentucky Medical society meeting here Tuesday and Wednesday. There was music and dancing and refreshments were served.

MIDNIGHT SHOTS

EXCITEMENT CREATED NEAR SIXTH AND JEFFERSON STREETS.

George Green, a negro employed by the Illinois Central, is not much of a pistol shot, and yet he managed to hit two near Sixth and Jefferson streets at midnight. He and several women, it seems, had been at Ninth and Trimble streets and started down town.

Near the intersection Jack Satterfield, colored, came up and is alleged to have assaulted Dolly Reed, one of the women, and struck her on the head. Green came to the rescue and began shooting. He hit Satterfield in the fleshy part of the leg and the woman happened to be in the way of the bullet and was shot in the thigh. Neither is seriously hurt and Green got away.

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE.

Mr. George W. Landrum has withdrawn from the race for the Democratic nomination for county judge in Livingston county. It has been an interesting race, and Mr. Landrum, who is county clerk, was thought to be a winner. He is now at Dawson for his health. The reason he withdrew was because he advocates taxation for county road improvements, and found out that the people on the south side of the river are about two to one against his position.

DAILY THOUGHT.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Sunday. Sunday

WHAT IS AT STAKE.

The democrats find nothing but gloom in the presidential outlook in the United States. There is no chance to elect a president, in the first place, and no chance for him to do anything if he were elected, in the second place.Mr. David Graham Phillips points out in the Philadelphia Saturday Post that even if the Democrats were to elect a president this year, the country would go on just the same at least three more years, probably indefinitely, because the United States Senate is Republican for three years, a least, and not a wheel in the legislative department of government can turn unless the senate so wills it. A democratic president could make no appointments except by and with the consent of the Republican senate. That is the reason it would do no good for the Democrats to elect a president. He would be a figurehead, and the principles and policies of the Republican party would be carried out just the same.Mr. Graham thus explains why the United States Senate is going to remain Republican: "Let us see. The twenty-two Republican seats at stake are in the following States—one seat in each:

California	Maryland
Connecticut	Massachusetts
Delaware	Michigan
Indiana	Minnesota
Maine	Nebraska
Nevada	Utah
New Jersey	Vermont
New York	Washington
North Dakota	West Virginia
Pennsylvania	Wisconsin
Rhode Island	Wyoming

"How many of these seats are secure in advance to the Republicans beyond the reach of any but a political convulsion which may be with entire safety set down as impossible?""Not even the rosiest Democratic dreamer, has the faintest hope of carrying the Legislature or anything else in any of these following States from that list:

Maine	Michigan	Minnesota
Pennsylvania	Vermont

"Here, then, are, at the first glance, five seats securely Republican, no doubt what may happen. This reduces the number of Republican seats actually at stake to seventeen, and the number of seats the Republicans must secure if they are to retain control is reduced to six."There are five States in which some Democrats entertain rather faint hopes of a Democratic majority for President; but in none of them does any Democrat have the slightest hope of carrying the Legislature—and it is the Legislature that elects the Senator. These States are:

Connecticut	Massachusetts,
Rhode Island	Wisconsin
	Wyoming.

"No Democrat will dispute a calculation that adds these States to the first five as securely Republican next fall so far as their Legislatures, their senators are concerned. But, as we have seen, the Republicans have thirty-four hold-over Senators, and the decided Ohio seat makes thirty-five.
Now, add the ten 'as good as decided'
and we get forty-five—within one of a majority of the Senate."And here is the list of States in any one of which the election of a Republican Legislature would insure a continuance of Republican control upon the Senate and therefore upon practically the whole national administration:

California	Nebraska
Delaware	Nevada
Indiana	New Jersey
Maryland	New York
North Dakota	Utah
Washington	West Virginia

"In some of these States the Democrats have, in certain circumstances, a chance to reverse Republican majorities so far as the Presidency is concerned. In a few they have even a chance to upset the present big Republican legislative majorities. In two—Delaware and Maryland—they are almost certain to get complete control. But nothing short of an impossible political cataclysm could wrench all those seats away from the Republicans. Yet all must be wrenched away if the Democrats are to gain control of the Senate."Clearly, no matter what may be the result of the balloting for President, the Republican policies as to the tariff, the corporations and so forth are certain to be continued for at least three years more. Indeed, it could be shown that in all probability a Democratic President would have an adverse majority to restrain and to forbid and to invalidate him throughout his term."What, then, is at stake in the next national election?"The Presidency alone. The kind of a man who shall sit in the White House, who shall direct the spirit—not the results, but only the spirit—of our dealings with foreign nations, who shall exercise the appointing power—by and with the advice and consent of a Republican Senate—and shall in general stamp his character upon the public service and set an example before the youth and the influenceable grown up people of the nation."And, finally and most important, the spirit of Executive obedience to the Constitution, the spirit of Executive enforcement of the laws."That is the whole stake. And a huge stake it is—but not such a huge stake as if a change in the Presidency meant a change in such matters as tariffs and business legislation generally."

DEMOCRATIC AUDACITY.

The effort of the state insurance commissioner to compel agents all over Kentucky to answer the questions he has propounded to them in a circular letter seems likely to provoke trouble. The position taken by the agents seems more logical and tenable than that taken by the commissioner.
He may be a new man and somewhat impressed with the importance of his position, in which event he will learn better. If a state officer desires to secure evidence against citizens for murder, forgery, robbery, burglary, theft or any other violation of law, he can't go to every man he meets and say, "Here, have you killed anybody?" "Have you committed robbery or forgery?" and then if the citizen refuses to answer, deprive him of his liberty or any of his privileges. Yet this is apparently what the insurance commissioner is trying to do.
He is seeking to compel insurance agents to answer questions about rebating, a violation of law, that may incriminate some of them. If the commissioner desires to break up the practice of rebating, the courts are open to him. He can prosecute, and on conviction a heavy fine may be assessed.
But like other people, he must do it in the regular way. He is not an absolute monarch with power to overthrow the provisions of the constitution and law, and possibly compel citizens to incriminate themselves by submittingto his impertinence. His effort betokens a sad ignorance of law for a state official.A Livingston county Democrat has withdrawn from the race for county judge because he found some of the people were opposed to his theory of road improvement. Really, this is interesting. Some of the Democrats seem to be getting entirely too conscientious. The usual Democratic way is to get the office and then "do as you d— please," as they express it.
They don't usually care a rap about what the people think of their position on any question just so they get the job. The millennium must be near.—Dr. D. J. Foster, who slipped and fell nearly three months ago, is able to get around his room on crutches, but will probably not be able to get out for several days yet, and it will be several weeks before he can walk

Leigh Fruit Co. Case.

THE JUSTICES' COURT.

The case of W. Y. Griffith against the Paducah City Railway Co. was tried this morning but will not go to the jury before Monday.The plaintiff is a dairyman and his wagon was struck by a street car on North Sixth street near Clay and he was hurt. He sues for $15,000.The evidence was heard this morning and argument made. Court adjournd at noon and the jury was dismissed until Monday.J. C. Brown was excused as a petit juror and J. G. Wright substituted.In the case of John Lehrer, petitioner ex parte, L. D. Husband, attorney, was allowed $100.Ed. Martena was granted a divorce from his wife, Nellie Martena.In the case of J. M. Lattrell against the East Tennessee Telephone Co., the plaintiff filed motion for a new trial.

MANY GO TO FEDERAL COURT.

The affairs of the Leigh Fruit and Storage Company, which made an assignment several days ago, will probably be wound up in the United States court. Yesterday in Louisville, Attorneys Wheeler, Hughes and Berry, of Paducah, filed a suit to force the company into involuntary bankruptcy. The plaintiffs in the action claim various amounts as follows:Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company, $777.19; Fruit Dispatch Company, Nashville, $1,740.38; Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Rail way, $345.52 for freight and carrying charges.It is probable that no effort will be made to prevent the affairs being transferred to the federal court. A member of the Globe Bank and Trust Company, the assignee, stated today that he did not think any would be.
Anyhow, it is stated that federal court in such cases usually assumes jurisdiction when it is asked by creditors.One of the main advantages in bankruptcy is that it costs about 33 1-3 per cent. less to wind up a con-cern's affairs in the federal court than in the state courts, and in addition gives the bankrupt a final discharge. It also gives creditors the right to go back six months into the bankrupt's affairs.

POLICE COURT.

Willie Alexander and Bernard Enders, two boys who went to a school house and interfered with pupils, were arraigned for disorderly conduct and fined $10 and costs. The Alexander boys' fine was suspended ten days and the other suspended permanently during good behavior.Jim Manger, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.William Greek was fined $1 and costs for a breach of the peace. He struck Charles Morris, colored, with a stick.
Morris was dismissed of a similar charge.Charles Hill was fined $10 and costs and Myrtle Burton dismissed on a charge of fighting.Margaret Kitts, colored, did not pay her dog license and was fined $10 and costs and the fine suspended for a few days under promise she would secure a license for her dog.

cases came up for hearing.—The regular meeting of the Red Men was held last night and the report on the Great Council showed it

MISS HELEN WHITMAN.

Miss Helen Whitman, 388 1/2 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

"There is nothing like Peruna for that tired feeling, which gives you no ambition for work or play. After a prolonged illness, about a year ago I felt unable to regain my health, but four bottles of Peruna made a wonderful change and restored me to perfect health.
As long as you keep your blood in good condition you are all right, and Peruna seems to fill the veins with pure, healthful blood. I thoroughly endorse it."

MISS HELEN WHITMAN.

Have you got nerves? Well, you ought to have nerves. But they ought to be strong nerves, good nerves. Does your hand tremble? You are living too fast. Does your heart flutter at times?
You had better call a halt. Americans live too fast. They crowd too much into a single day. They have too little leisure. The hospitals and insane asylums are filling up. The quiet, pastoral scenes of yore are becoming rare. It's time that we quit this sort of business.do exactly as did Mattie B. Curtis, Secretary of Legion of Loyal Women, Hotel Salem, Boston, Mass. She said in a recent letter: "I suffered for over a year with general weakness and debility manifested in severe headache and backache.
I took four bottles of Peruna, and for two months have been entirely free from these maladies."Thousands of cases might be quoted in which Peruna has been used to rescue people from the perdition of deranged nerves, and put them on the good, solid foundation of health. The County Aud-First, repair the injury already done

SEWERAGE TO BE BUILT ON SOUTH THIRD SHORTLY.

The excavations on South Third street are not complete. The street itself is nearing completion, but the sidewalks and the storm water sewerage yet remain to be built. This storm water sewerage will extend from Segenfelder's saloon to Broadway on one side and from Garrison's saloon, on the other side, to Broadway. A sewer from Ellinger's back towards Kentucky avenue has already been laid. This all is to carry off rain water, and the excavations are to be made in the pavement. It is expected to begin the work next week.

BETWEEN FIRES

A VAIN CHASE OVER EUROPE.

A lady who couldn't eat starchy foods because of indigestion nor meat on account of gout, travelled all over Europe in search of health and came home to finally solve the problem with Grape Nuts.

"I have had an inherited weakness of digestion and strong tendency to gout in common with all my father's family and for many years was subject to severe attacks of acute indigestion with violent sick headaches and other distressing accompaniments. In 1893 the attacks culminated in a complete breakdown of the digestive system and the nerves belonging to it and I took a 'cure' of having my stomach syphoned out every day.

"This consisted of pouring down several quarts of hot water with soda in it. In this way I discovered that the starchy foods, undercooked vegetables and undercooked cereals like oatmeal would not digest at all but lay unchanged in the stomach sometimes for days. I continued this washing every day for four months and twice a week or more for a year. Then for years I lived almost entirely on meat which was very bad for my gout but which the best stomach specialist declared necessary because of my inability to handle starchy foods. Then the gout became acute and I went to Europe, where I improved, as I could get no meat in the morning. When I went to England I was worse where they eat heavy meat breakfasts.

"When I came home I happened to have Grape Nuts brought to my attention and as it could be eaten dry and did not become slimy like other cereals I tried it with cream which is better than milk. The Grape Nuts seemed to suit me perfectly and for the past two years I have eaten nothing for breakfast but four teaspoonfuls of Grape Nuts and cream and have nothing else for luncheon and yet I still prefer the taste of it to any other food in the whole range of catering. We take our dinners at my husband's club and have a fine table d'hôte prepared by a skilled French chef and the others often laugh at me for saying that I would rather have Grape Nuts than any entree or dessert that can be offered.

"I am now entirely cured of stomach trouble and in addition to the great improvement in my digestion and a decrease in headaches I find myself able to return to writing with ease which I had been compelled to give up for some years."

Theatrical Notes.

The wife of Nat M. Wills, who was seen here in "A Son of Rest" early in the season, is dead. She was a well known professional woman, and accompanied her husband in his tour although taking no part in his performances.

The foundation for the new English theater at Henderson has been about completed and the brick work begins Monday. Manager English finds everything progressing nicely, and the people of Henderson are very enthusiastic over the outlook.

The second week of the Ethel Tucker Stock Co., at the Kentucky has been a financial and artistic success in every way, which goes to show that the theater going public has taken advantage of witnessing—first class productions at popular prices. It can be safely said that no other company has given Paducah the advantage of such high class plays at popular prices.

"Knobs, of Tennessee" was presented by the Ethel Tucker Stock Company at the Kentucky theater last night and pleased a large audience. It was never more creditably and artistically presented in Paducah and every character was cleverly played by this excellent company. Tonight will be seen "Wanted—The Earth," and the prospects are for a large audience. The company enters its third week Monday and has proven one of the most popular ever here.

"It was a lucky day for her."

Miss Alice Burke, whose residence is at 1121 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes us of her complete recovery from a severe and persistent attack of indigestion. In the case of this Ohio young lady proved just the remedy her impaired system stood most in need of.

Dr. Caldwell's (LAXATIVE) Syrup Pepsin

Read Miss Burke's Own Testimony

Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill.:

Gentlemen—For disorders and derangements of the stomach your medicine is certainly just what is needed, or so I have found it. For several years I had been troubled with indigestion, which affected my general health, and I was miserable most of the time. I tried many so-called remedies off and on, but as none of them helped me I had lost all hope. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was recommended so highly for stomach trouble that I was finally persuaded to try it, and it was a lucky day for me when I did so, for in a week I was improved and in a month I was nearly well; so I kept taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, until now I can eat anything without fear of results and am in the best of health.

Sincerely yours, MISS ALICE BURKE.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

Filigree Ball

By ANNA KATHARINE GREEN,

Author of "The Mystery of Agatha Webb," "Lost Man's Lane," Etc.

Copyright, 1902, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

What she took out or whether she took out anything this spy upon her movements could not say, for when Loretta heard the drawer being pushed back into place she drew the curtains close, perceiving that Miss Tuttle would have to face this window in coming back. However, she ventured upon one other peep through them just as that lady was leaving the room and remembered as if it were yesterday how clay white her face looked and how she held her left hand pressed close against the folds of her dress. It was but a few minutes after that Miss Tuttle left the house.

As we all knew what was kept in that drawer, the conclusion was obvious. She wished to see if his pistol was still there or if it had been taken away by her sister.

The temerity which had made it possible to associate the name of such a man as Francis Jeffrey with an outrageous crime having been thus in a measure explained, the coroner recoiled that gentleman and again thoroughly surprised the gaping public.

Had the witness accompanied his wife to the Moore house?

"No."

Had he met her there by any appointment he had made with her or which had been made for them both by some third person?

"No."

Had he been at the Moore house on the night of the 11th at any time previous to the hour when he was brought there by the officials?

"No."

Would he glance at this impression of certain finger tips which had been left in the dust of the southwest chamber mantle?

He had already noted them.

Now would he place his left hand on the paper and see—

"It is not necessary," he burst forth, in great heat. "I own to those marks. That is, I have no doubt they were made by my hand." Here, unconsciously, his eyes flew to the member thus referred to, as if conscious that in some way it had proved a traitor to him; after which his gaze traveled slowly my way, with an indescribable question in it which roused my conscience and made the trick by which I had got the impression of his hand seem less of a triumph than I had heretofore considered it. The next minute he was answering the coroner under oath, very much as he had answered him in the unofficial interview at which I had been present.

"I acknowledge having been in the Moore house and even having been in its southwest chamber, but not at the time supposed. It was on the previous night." He went on to relate how, being in a nervous condition and having the key to this old dwelling in his pocket, he had amused himself by going through its dilapidated interior. All of this made a doubtful impression which was greatly emphasized when, in reply to the inquiry as to where he got the light to see by, he admitted that he had come upon a candle in an upstairs room and made use of that; though he could not remember what he had done with this candle afterward, and looked dazed and quite at sea, till the coroner suggested that he might have carried it into the closet of the room where his fingers had left their impression in the dust of the mantelshelf.

Then he broke down like a man from whom some prop is suddenly snatched and looked around for a seat. This was given him, while a silence, the most dreadful I ever experienced, held every one there in check. But he speedily rallied and, with the remark that he was a little confused in regard to the incidents of that night, waited with a wild look in his averted eye for the coroner's next question.

Unhappily for him, it was in continuation of the same subject. Had he bought candles or not at the grocer's around the corner? Yes, he had. Before visiting the house? Yes. Had he also bought matches? Yes. What kind? Common safety matches. Had he noticed when he got home that the box he had just bought was half empty? No. Nevertheless he had used many matches in going through this old house, had he not? Possibly. To light his way upstairs, perhaps? It might be. Had he not so used them? Yes. Why had he done so if he had candles in his pocket, which were so much easier to hold and so much more lasting than a lighted match? Ah, he could not say; he did not know; his mind was confused. He was awake when he should have been asleep. It was all a dream to him.

The coroner became still more persistent. "Did you enter the library on your solitary visit to this old house?"

"I believe so."

"Potted around. I don't remember."

"What light did you use?"

"A candle, I think."

"You must know."

"Well, I had a candle. It was in a candelabrum."

"What candle and what candelabrum?"

"The same I used upstairs, of course."

"And you cannot remember where you left this candle and candelabrum when you finally quitted the house?"

"No. I wasn't thinking about candles."

"What were you thinking about?"

"The rupture with my wife and the bad name of the house I was in."

"Oh! And this was on Tuesday night?"

"Yes, sir."

"How can you prove this to us?"

"I cannot."

"But you swear?"

"I swear that it was Tuesday night, the night immediately preceding the one when—when my wife's death robbed me of all earthly happiness."

It was feelingly uttered, and several faces lightened; but the coroner repeated, "Is there no way you can prove this to our satisfaction?" the shadow settled again, and on no head more perceptibly than on that of the unfortunate witness.

It was now late in the day and the atmosphere of the room had become stifling, but no one seemed to be conscious of any discomfort, and a general gasp of excitement passed through the room when the coroner, taking out a box from under a pile of papers, disclosed to the general gaze the famous white ribbon with its dainty bow, lying on top of the fatal pistol.

That this special feature, the most interesting one of all connected with the tragedy, should have been kept so long in reserve and brought out just at this time, struck many of Mr. Jeffrey's closest friends as unnecessarily dramatic; but when the coroner, lifting out the ribbon, remarked tentatively, "You know this ribbon?" we were more struck by the involuntary cry of surprise which rose from some one in the crowd than the door than by the look with which Mr. Jeffrey eyed it and made the necessary reply. That cry had something more than nervous excitement in it. Identifying the person who had uttered it as a certain busy little woman well known in town, I sent an officer to watch her; then recalled my attention to the point the coroner was attempting to make. He had forced Mr. Jeffrey to recognize the ribbon as the one which had fastened the pistol to his wife's arm. Now he asked whether, in his opinion, a woman could tie such a bow to her own wrist, and when in common justice Mr. Jeffrey was obliged to say no, waited a third time before he put the general suspicion again into words:

The telltale ribbon

"Can you not, by some means or some witness, prove to us that it was on Tuesday night and not on Wednesday you spent the hours you speak of on this scene of your marriage and your wife's death?"

The hopelessness which more than once had marked Mr. Jeffrey's features since the beginning of this inquiry reappeared with renewed force as this suggestive question fell again upon his ears, and he was about to repeat his plea of forgetfulness when the coroner's attention was diverted by a request made in his ear by one of the detectives. In another moment Mr. Jeffrey had been waved aside and a new witness sworn in.

You can imagine every one's surprise, nine most of all, when this witness proved to be Uncle David.

CHAPTER XIV.

DO not know why the coroner had so long delayed to call this witness.

What he said was in the way of confirming the last witness' testimony as to his having been at the Moore house on Tuesday evening. Mr. Moore, who was very particular as to dates and days, admitted that the light which he had seen in a certain window of his ancestral home on the evening when he summoned the police was but the repetition of one he had detected there the evening before. It was this repetition which alarmed him and caused him to break through all his usual habits and leave his home at night to notify the police.

SPIELERS ARE HERE AND ALL IS READY

The Week of Fun Begins Monday.

Big Carnival Company Arrives By Special Train Tomorrow.

A MERRY TIME EXPECTED

The big arch will be complete and in place at the carnival grounds at 12th and Trimble this evening and everything is in readiness for the big show Monday.

Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the Mundy company will arrive by special train over the Illinois Central from Memphis and Monday morning everything will be in place, and Monday evening the formal opening take place.

Chief Spieler Ben Weille asks all merchants and others to close at 5 o'clock Monday evening in order that every one may see the parade and those who have been called on many participate. Most of the merchants have already agreed to close.

The spiliers will make a good showing in the parade, as they will appear in fancy costumes. Today the professional spiliers for the various attractions have been around with megaphones, and a good many people will be familiar with the names of some of the attractions before Monday. The "rubes" have also done their share of the advertising.

Director General Lagomarsino is well pleased with the outlook, and the only thing now necessary is good weather. A big consignment has been ordered and will be here early Monday unless it is sidetracked some where.

The attractions for the carnival are:

DIABELO.

The world's supreme attraction of intense interest is "Diavelo." How a man can continually ride down a steep incline fully 82 feet high and going at a velocity of 125 miles an hour in order to gain enough momentum to circle the loop is beyond the comprehension of the common mind, but Diavelo keeps it up and is today the strongest attraction in the country.

CREATION.

Creation with its charming uniqueness and undreamed of love and beauty will also be a great feature of the Great Mundy shows. There is not a dull moment from the time the visitor enters, one pleasant surprise follows another in artistic sequence, so that with increasing interest we pass from scene to scene feeling each time that pleasurable sensation that comes from having one's better self uplifted by a series of climaxes hitherto considered impossible, until at last you sit enraptured by the highest conception of the scene.

CHARLES BIGNEY.

Picture a platform 100 feet high and imagine a man diving from that point in five feet of water and you will have some conception of what Charles Bigney, the world's greatest diver is doing with the Mundy shows.

THE GREAT ANIMAL READER.

Bicardo, Europe's greatest animal trainer, will have charge of this particular department. In his collection Mr. Mundy has spared no expense on getting together animals from every clime, among them are four large forest bred African lions, these huge beasts are of the most savage and ferocious of their kind and were captured in the wilds of Western Africa after killing a number of natives who took part in trapping them.

THE BABY INCUBATORS.

When the baby incubators are shown here for the first time, two or three miles of humanity will be nosed in these truly wonderful machines that are to give them a respite to live with equal chances to their sturdier brothers and sisters. The baby incubator belongs to the innermost realm of science, and they should be treated as exhibit of the greatest attainment of medical science, which has constructed a substitute for the human mother.

THE SEVEN DILLMANS.

The seven Dillmans, Europe's premier acrobats will also be a great feature of the Mundy shows with their tumbling, head-balancing hand springs, and in fact all that goes with particular line of work, they stand pre-eminently conspicuous for their truly marvelous exhibition.

VENITIAN GLASS BLOWERS.

Mr. P. J. Mundy, proprietor of the Great Mundy shows, has secured the services of genuine Venitian glass blowers and they will be one of the unique attractions of the aggregation.

WITH THE MILLMAN TRIBE.

Never since the days of Blondin have people evinced more excitement and admiration than on seeing the Millman tribe on high slack wire, these three nifty people perform on one single wire a feat that has never been attempted before.

CRYSTAL PALACE MAZE.

The Crystal Palace Maze studded with its hundreds of incandescent lights of every hue, richly carved, gilded and decorated, will stand out pre-eminently with the Great Mundy Shows. It is said Mr. Mundy expended $30,000 on this attraction alone.

THE GERMAN VILLAGE.

That art is matured in Paducah is evinced by constructing the German Village in its entirety. All local talent has been employed on this particular attraction. Paducahans should feel justly proud when the carnival grounds open up next Monday, in view of the work of our local talent. Deal's band has been hired to furnish music for the above attraction.

LOTTA.

Mr. Mundy has added many new features this year and among them is beautiful Lotta, judged by those who are in a position to know as the greatest serpentine dancer extant. Her image is reflected in countless mirrors and focused by calcitums of every hue and the effect affords one no end of delight and admiration when viewing his exhibition of terpsichorean art.

THE MUNCIE ZOUAVES.

The Muncie Zouaves are great features with the Mundy shows. They are considered the finest drilled company in America, and hold medals for their marked ability and will create an unusual amount of interest with their manners, wit, etc.

There are many other attractions with the Great Mundy Shows, but space forbids enumerating them. Everywhere the above shows have exhibited it has been the consensus of public opinion that of their high class excellence and marked superiority. They have far excelled any thing else of the kind in America, they are educated and refined, satisfying and clean, amusing and high class, elevating and edifying, honorably conducted and extensively advertised. The exterior of all the shows are true works of art, splendid, richly carved, gilded, painted and decorated and studded with hundreds of colored incandescent lights which flash and glitter like a myriad around the great white arches, making it light as day.

Distinct days which have been mapped out by the committee for surrounding towns are:

Paducah, Monday, May 16. This will be Paducah's special day.
Metropolis and Brookport Tuesday, May 17.
Mayfield and Fulton, Wednesday, May 18.
N., O. and St. L. day, Thursday, May 19.
Cairo, Friday, May 20.
Princeton, Saturday, May 21.

Prevailing colors for the carnival will be red and white and most of the leading merchants will decorate the fronts of their business houses.

One of the greatest and most interesting features of the parade will be the automobile section, headed by Ben Weille and accompanied on the same seat will be Dewey, the fierce African forest bred lion, that is providing Weille's nerve don't fail him. The arch at the entrance of the carnival is completed, all construction work is finished, so nothing remains to be done until the arrival of the Great Mundy shows to complete the event.

"All hail King Carnival."
